Ken

Owen Wylde (gaming assist)

Ju to approach Doug Linder and David Thatcher for inclusion as general support for programming. Programming to be done as a committee (programming) with PRK having final say on items and their placement.

Video programming ideas:

- Dr Who Villians – can you name them all (competition)
- 100 yrs of Sci-fi ‘name the movie’ (competition)
- Obscure quotes from the Video stream (competition)

The premise of the above competitions being to get people into the video stream.

Gaming notes:

David Gunn has provisionally accepted responsibility for gaming, being that his idea of gaming and what we as a committee want out of gaming are remarkably the same, taking the focus off the serious ‘gamers’ as they tend to look after themselves happily, and promoting more of the fun and silly games. Ken or David to approach Chris Hall about running an rpg campaign. There was contemplation of having a LARP run, however we would need to approach someone to do this – perhaps Dave Cake?

It was pointed out that there needs to be an official ‘Equipment Stream’ so that the panels and their required equipment matches up, and things run smooth with all required bits and pieces. Considerations such as, the need for a video projector as opposed to an OHP projector etc.

6. Sponsorship letter is being drafted, there was also a list of potential sponsors brainstormed. Those whom are currently assisting Ju with approaching sponsors are:

Amy Hightower
Chris Bobridge
Stephen Griffiths
Ryan
